

Cowboy Opry
Friday March 1, 2019 7:00 pm

Adult $10 ;
Children Free (18 and under -up to 5 children with paying adult)

Grand Ole' Opry like concert with Sam DeLeeuw, Gary Allegretto , Clive Romney, Ed Peekeekoot, Kristen Lloyd (aka Krazy Ani), Thatch Elmer & Colt Blankman.

For more information, videos and song samples go back to the website and see their bio pages!

Sam DeLeeuw is a very talented lady, and knows what she's talking about!!

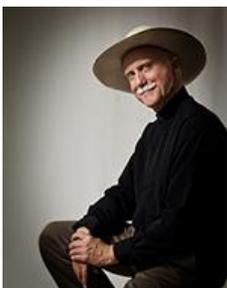

Her ranching background and day to day life gives her all the ideas for her humorous, or tear evoking original poetry. Her numerous awards include WMA four time "Female Poet of the Year" and Academy of Western Artists Humorist of the Year. Raised in Black Foot, Idaho, Sam DeLeeuw now makes her home just outside of Ogden, Utah, and remains in-demand as a poet, humorist, emcee, and lively entertainer.

Gary Allegretto is an award-winning cowboy singer/songwriter/musician whose rare abilities on the harmonica are virtually one-of-a-kind. American Cowboy magazine calls his performances...

"Amazing. You've never seen or heard anything like it." Indeed, Gary's dazzling musicianship has earned him an Academy of Western Artists Will Rogers Award, Best of the West Award and eight Western Music Association Award nominations, including Outstanding Entertainer and Outstanding Instrumentalist.

His unique brand of song writing and music has topped the Western Radio Charts, received Grammy Award nomination consideration and been featured on soundtracks for major motion pictures and television. Don't miss your chance to witness the world's top "Harmonicowboy"!

Clive Romney is the Executive Director, Utah Pioneer Heritage Arts, professor/teacher songwriter, producer, composer of over 500 works, including "Scripture Power", talented musician on almost every instrument, passionate storyteller/portrayer of pioneer experiences, and wonderful historian. He is a devoted husband, father and grandfather and has received several Pearl awards.

Ed Peekeekoot is a highly skilled finger-style guitar player with a great ability to entertain audiences. He can play just about anything with strings! Although he lives on Vancouver Island, Ed maintains strong connections with the Ahtahkakoop Cree First Nation in Saskatchewan where he was born & raised

Kristen Lloyd 's (aka Krazy Ani) strongest ability lies in her music. She has been playing guitar and singing professionally for thirteen years. She loves to teach music, is also a master at trick roping, gun spinning, whip cracking and a professional western artist, and is the train robber on the Heber Creeper! You might have seen her there!!! She is currently a Commercial music student at Brigham Young University.

Thatch Elmer is 15 yrs. old and resides in a small Equine community of Harrisville. Thatch has been writing and reciting Cowboy Poetry since he started speaking complete sentences and started performing at age 9 in Heber City Utah with a 15 minute open mic slot that literally changed His life Forever. He performs for gatherings, festivals, celebrations, fairs and private shows all across the US. The experiences as a working ranch cowboy is portrayed in his writing. Thatch has a deep appreciation of Classic Cowboy Poetry and loves reciting his favorites along with his original Poems.

Colt Blankman is 12 years old Cowboy Poet and lives in Avon, Utah. He performed his first poem at the CVCR Kid's Poetry Contest when he was 8. The next year he won with an original poem and was hooked. The last 3 years had him performing at schools, community events, 4H, talent shows, and poetry gatherings around Utah and Idaho, and even for the National County Agents SLC, and for other prestigious groups. He loves the classic cowboy poems, patriotic poems and writing his own. Colt just released his first CD following a year of amazing opportunities.